Old Business

Mayor Parker called for any business.

Attorney Edison reported that the Public Service Commission entered an order that overruled the request of the bankruptcy trustee to intervene, and they overruled anything to do with the case. If they want to litigate it any further they will have to take it to bankruptcy court or back into Franklin Circuit Court.

Mayor Parker reported Marty Hester had brought in dirt to work on the ditch, but it has been raining and he has not been able to start the work.

Mayor Parker reported that the pickup truck bought from Pioneer Village, has been transferred over to the City and is in her driveway. Ron Parker has looked at the mechanical issues and says there are some issues with the power steering pump and the transmission may be slipping. He also says because of using it to spread salt there is a lot of rust. In the coming weeks he will be looking at the truck in more detail as the weather improves.

Attorney Edison stated there is no need to have the 2nd reading of the new Flood Plain Maps as the City of Hunters Hollow was not included in any map changes.

Attorney Edison stated that effective July 14, 2016 the City will not have priority over mortgage companies when it comes to clean-up liens when the property is in foreclosure. He suggested the City look at changing the nuisance ordinance before January 1, 2017.

Mayor Parker spoke to Jim Bohannon from Hillview, and they will spray for mosquitoes and charge us for the spray. They will spray during the evenings. Bonnie Israel stated OPC could not beat the cost of Hillview spraying the ditch.

Caprice Price stated there are more people making parking places in the easement. Mayor Parker stated she did not like people parking in the easement, at least there are not so many cars parked directly on the street, and it allows emergency vehicles more room to get through.

Bonnie Israel was concerned about the trash left at the curb at the empty rental house on Angelina Road, rented by Campoamor and owned by Vicki and Danny Downing. Attorney Edison will send Mr and Mrs. Downing a letter.

New Business

Mark Edison gave the 1st Reading of Ordinance 2016-01, Setting the budget for 2016/2017.

Bonnie Israel made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Caprice Price 2nd the motion. All were in favor. Motion carried. Meeting adjourned.
